Stanza No. 1

A little word in kindness spoken,
A motion or a tear.
Has often healed the hearts broken
And made a friend sincere.

مہربانی سے بولا ہوا ایک چھوٹا سا لفظ یا ایک اشارہ یا آنسو اکثر ٹوٹے ہوئے دلوں کے زخموں کو بھر دیتا ہے اور ایک دوست کو مخلص بنا دیتا ہے۔

Stanza No. 2

A word, a look has crushed to earth,
Full many a budding flower.
Which had a smile but owned its birth,
Had blessed life's darkest hour.

ایک لفظ اور ایک نگاہ نے کھلے ہوئے پھولوں کو مٹس دیا ہے۔ جو مسکراتے تھے اور ان کی پیدائش زندگی کے تاریک لمحوں میں باعثِ فرحت تھی۔

Then deem it not an idle thing,
A pleasant word to speak.
The face you wear, the thoughts you bring,
A heart may heal or break.

ایک کو حقیر چیز مت جانو۔ کیونکہ آپ کے الفاظ اور چہرے کے تاثرات اور آپ کے خیالات دلوں کو توڑ بھی سکتے ہیں اور جوڑ بھی سکتے ہیں۔

SUMMARY

This tri-stanza poem contains a remarkable idea and theme. The poet has beautifully worked out the scheme and format of the poem into a reality that cannot be denied. The poet has underlined (زور دینا) the importance of the proverb "Always think, before you speak" because kind or unkind words pay back man in the same fashion. Therefore, we should be quite careful while we utter words about anything.

Words play a great role (کردار) in determining (طے کرنا) relations with our fellows. A sweet, kind and sympathetic (رنجیدہ) word can provide solace (تسکین) and comfort (سکون) to a broken and dejected heart. It can turn the people in our favour. It can turn our foe into a friend. It can provide everlasting (پائیدار) happiness and solace and can cause goodness. It can spread bliss (خوشی) and pleasure everywhere.

On the contrary, a harsh word or an angry look can break and wither a smiling heart as fresh flowers wither away by mishandling (بھٹی). A sweet and careful word with a friendly accord soothes and comforts us whereas a harsh and careless word buys enmity (دشمنی) and spreads disunity (انشقاق) among us. We should be sweet and kind to others.
